

Mi'kmaw | Economic Benefits Office

MICHELIN Electronic Engineering Technician Program

Michelin has a growing need for skilled workers in technical maintenance and management. Our office in partnership with Michelin, NSCC, and the province of NS are preparing interested applicants for careers in technical maintenance. A program has been developed to enhance each participants math, science, and employability skills. Successful participants of this program will apply to Michelin's Tech Scholar program, and if successful, they will take the full 2-year Electronic Engineering Technician Program starting promising careers with Michelin.

Length of program: Approximately 20 weeks

Start date: Spring 2016

Location of Training: NSCC Stellarton Campus?

Program content: College Mathematics, College Physics, Employment Retention, WHMIS/OHS

Pre-Requisites:

- Grade 12/GED
- Aptitude for solving problems
- Excellent communication skills
- Ability to work in a team environment
- Valid driver's license and access to reliable transportation an asset

To learn more about the opportunities offered by Michelin please attend one of the following sessions

Yarmouth	March 22, 10AM Band Office
Glooscap FN
Annapolis Valley FN
Bear River FN	