

ACADIA FIRST NATION

Species At Risk Field Worker

Job Opportunity

Term: Part Time Term position for 13 weeks

Wage: $ 12.50/hour

Hours Per Week: 20 hours per week

Setting: Outdoor work will be split between the Wildcat Reserve and the Ponhook Reserve in Queens County.

Duties will include:

- Conducting fieldwork looking for Eastern Ribbonsnakes, Wood Turtles, Snapping Turtles, Atlantic Coastal Plain Flora, Aerial Insectivores, Black Ash, and other Species at Risk
- Assist with planning future monitoring work
- Assist with workshops for community members about these species
- Other tasks as required from the Kespukwitk Species at Risk Project Coordinators
-

Additional Requirements:

- Previous Education and experience in Biology/Ecology fieldwork
- Able to spend full days outside in all types of weather
- Ability to work independently and also in a team, supervising student fieldwork
- Must have own transportation

Apply: Send Resume and Cover Letter to Shalan Joudrey

Email: envirobrfn@eastlink.ca

Or Fax to 902-467-4143

Deadline: 3 PM June 1, 2016