

INDIGENOUS HEALTH SCIENCES SUMMER CAMP 2017

We're looking for Indigenous youth interested in having fun & learning about health careers

The Dalhousie Faculty of Medicines Indigenous Health Program in partnership with The Johnson Scholarship foundation, and the Atlantic policy Congress of First nations Chiefs (APC) will be hosting THREE health sciences summer camps for Indigenous students this summer. The camps will be located at Cape Breton University, July 18-21, Saint Francis Xavier University, July 23-26, 2017, and Dalhousie University August 7-9, 2017. As a participant in the program, students will be exposed to a variety of health care professions and training programs through interactive, hands on programming.
