WHAT WOULD A MI'KMAQ-FOCUSED SOCIAL ASSISTANCE POLICY LOOK LIKE?

We would like to hear from you!

A research team led by Fred Wien has been engaged by the Assembly of Nova Scotia Mi'kmaq Chiefs acting through KMK to undertake research on the development of a culturally-relevant and comprehensive M'ikmaq-focused policy for social assistance on reserve in Nova Scotia.

Funding for this project is provided by Indigenous and Northern Affairs Canada (INAC) and by the Canadian Institutes of Health Research (CIHR).

WHO CAN PARTICIPATE?

We want to speak with Mi'kmaq individuals living on-reserve in Nova Scotia, especially Mi'kmaq individuals who are currently receiving Social Assistance (18 years of age and over).

WHAT DOES YOUR PARTICIPATION INVOLVE?

A one-hour one-on-one interview and/or a two-hour small group discussion

WHEN IS THIS RESEARCH TAKING PLACE?

In May and June, 2017

WHERE IS THIS RESEARCH TAKING PLACE?

Gold River Health Center ---June 15--- at 1 pm
