

Are YOU interested in learning more about the Mi'kmaq language?

Would YOU like to learn how to speak our traditional language?

Acadia First Nation would like to hear from you!

If you are interested in attending classes to learn how to speak Mi'kmaq, please complete the form below. We will be starting the language program on September 18th, 2017. If you are interested in attending the weekly sessions please complete the short registration form below. We are asking anyone who is interested in attending to ensure they make it to the first session for instruction and introduction to the program. This will be an interactive experience which will involve all of our communities. Please have your registration forms submitted by Thursday, September 7th, 2017. If you have any questions, please contact learnmikmaq@acadiaband.ca or call your local Administrative Office.
