2018 Aboriginal Pre-Cadet Training Program The Aboriginal Pre-Cadet Training Program (AFTP) offers Canadian Aboriginal people from the ages of 19-29, the opportunity to get an inside look at the life of a police officer. This summer program provides the selected candidates with hands-on experience in the RCMP's training program.

Those accepted into the program attend a three-week training program at the RCMP Training Academy (Depot) in Regina, from May 13 to June 2, 2018. The training focuses on teaching collaborative problem-solving skills, law enforcement, public speaking, cultural diversity and facilitating Safe Community Workshops in communities. There are also elements of physical fitness and drill which promote team work and provide students with long-term strategies to meet personal fitness goals.

The RCMP will provide transportation, meals, accommodation, uniform, and 3 weeks of training wages.

H Division RCMP is seeking to send three interested and qualified candidates from across Nova Scotia to Depot.

Basic requirements to apply:

- Be between 19-29 years of age
- Be of First Nation, Métis or Inuit descent
- Be a Canadian citizen
- Be of good character
- Be able to pass an enhanced reliability security check
