Explain why you are requesting an appeal, including the section of the Acadia First Nation Post Secondary Educational Assistance Program that contributes to your request.

Please check the method of appeal preferred:

- Written Appeal: The Appeal Committee (Chief and Council) reviews written submissions received from the Student/Applicant and the Education Director. A decision, based on the information received is conveyed to all parties.
- Personal Appeal: The Appeal Committee (Chief and Council) sets a date when the Student/Applicant and Education Director appear before the committee to make a presentation. A decision, based on the information presented is conveyed to all parties.

All decisions made by the Appeal Committee are final and are not subject to further appeal.

There is no grounds for appeal if a decision is based on lack of funding.
